

GWC SCIENCE FAIR

George Washington Carver High School SCIENCE FAIR

This March, Philadelphia school children participated in the George Washington Carver Science Fair, sponsored jointly by The School District and The Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The largest of its kind in the country, the fair provides opportunities for students to gain enriched learning experiences through scientific inquiry and discovery. All students in grades 4-12 from Philadelphia public, parochial, and private schools are eligible to enter.

James Kennedy is lauded by Mayor Michael Nutter at the Academy of Natural Sciences.
