“An Evening of Science, Education and Hip-Hop Music” At The Dell

The United States is losing its competitive edge in math and science while the rest of the world soars ahead. Our knowledge capital, which fuels innovation and economic growth, is at risk. There is National hard facts on why Science and Education matter and why our country's student performance must improve in order for America to remain globally competitive.

Enter Grand Hank – The Master Scientist – who is a catalyst to help bring about that change, and spark interest in Science and Education through music entertainment just in time for the upcoming school year.

On Wednesday, August 19, 2015, Grand Hank Productions Presents “An Evening Of Science, Education And Hip-Hop Music” at The Dell Music Center, located at 2400 Strawberry Mansion Drive in Fairmount Park.

This is a Back-To-School event of the entire family and an event that uses a proven multimedia approach that combines Science, Education, Music, and physical movement for total audience participation.

This one of a kind production is designed to introduce, highlight, and celebrate Science, Education and Music. “An Evening Of Science, Education And Hip-Hop Music” is a novel approach to teaching and learning through event-based instruction.

Doors open at 6:00 PM and show begins at 7:00 PM (Master Scientist hits the Stage at 7:45 PM). The event is FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. For more information please contact Tyraine Ragsdale (267) 249- 5613 or email events@grandhank.com.

About Grand Hank

Tyraine Ragsdale (a.k.a. Grand Hank) is the Founder and President of Grand Hank Productions Incorporated. Prior to heading this organization, Tyraine was a research chemist for the R.W. Johnson Pharmaceutical Research Institute Division of Johnson & Johnson. Tyraine is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in Chemistry.

Since founding the company in 1989, Tyraine has reached a wide range of students, parents and teachers across the world with his educational programs, products and services. In 2009, Tyraine received the George Washington Carver Award for his display of outstanding accomplishments in the field of science.

In March of 2012, Grand Hank broke the Guinness Book of World Record for facilitating the largest chemistry lesson in history at the National Science Teachers Association Conference in Indianapolis, Indiana. Just recently in 2015 he received the “Man Of The Year Award.” His commitment to education as well as his desire to provide positive role models for our community is the cornerstones of Grand Hank's personal mission.
